GREENS at Fort Mason

A welcome new addition to Fort Mason Center is Greens, a restaurant constructed and operated by the Zen Center of San Francisco. Now you can meet your friends for a fine meal or relax over a cup of capuccino before an event or a class.

Greens offers vegetarian food as a cuisine in its own right, carefully prepared, beautifully presented, and delicious. Choices range from charcoal-broiled vegetable brochettes, pasta made with fresh herbs from Green Gulch Farm, and individual French-style pizzas, to a variety of sandwiches and salads. Also available are soups and special dishes which change daily, depending on the vegetables in season. Featured at Greens are breads and pastries from the Tassajara Bread Bakery, available either from the take-out counter or to eat at the restaurant.

The restaurant is decorated with a beautiful and complex array of artwork, including paintings, sculpture, and refined Japanese woodworking. There are countless visual delights — the view of the boats on the Marina, the Golden Gate Bridge, and Sausalito across the Bay. Even the bathrooms are unusual in decor, with water-conserving toilets from Japan.

Greens, located in Building 308, is open Tuesdays through Saturdays from 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Lunch prices range from $2 to $5. Dinners will be offered some time later this summer. For further information you can call Greens at 771-6222, or just drop by and see it for yourself. It's worth the trip.
